

7th-12th Grade Math & or Science Teacher

Valeo Academy - Hoffman Estates, IL

Job Performance Description

- Prepare lessons for and instruct Jr. high and high schoolers in Algebra, Geometry, Precalculus, Calculus, Chemistry, Biology, Physics and Physical Science according to the curriculum and educational objectives of the school.
- Apply Biblical principles according to the philosophy of the school to those disciplines.
- Use interactive discussions, hands-on approaches, presentations, manipulatives, technology, and media to ensure that learning and critical/Biblical thinking are achieved.
- Evaluate student progress through the administration of various assignments, research projects, and tests.
- Manage the classroom, maintain classroom discipline.
- Oversee study halls, accompany students on field trips as needed.
- Assist with the planning and execution of special events.
- Manage report card and transcript information.

Skills and Competency

- Must have a bachelor's degree.
- Ability to multi-task, have good organizational and classroom management skills
- Strong interpersonal and communication skills.
- Have a heart for children, a calling to teach, and ability to motivate, inspire, and challenge students.
- Have a heart and willingness to serve, and commitment to the vision of the ministry.
- Able to comprehend and apply the educational philosophy and method of instruction of the school.
- Able to oversee special events and projects.
- Strong research skills.
- Able to type 40 wpm or greater; knowledge of Microsoft Office applications (Word, Excel).
- Must have a saving knowledge of Jesus Christ, a pursuit of maturity in the faith and a growing walk in the Spirit. Be able to support the ministry's objectives and statement of faith.

Benefits Package includes enrollment discount and Insurance.